

Hệ thống quản lý và cho thuê kho lưu trữ tự phục vụ Self-Storage Facility Rental and Management System	Storage Customer Facility Staff Facility Manager Business Operations Manager System Administrator	1. Storage Customer - View storage facilities, unit types, unit sizes, rental prices, and available units. - Reserve a storage unit by choosing the facility, unit type, start date, and rental period. - Pay the deposit, rental fee, renewal fee, or extra charges. - Check in to receive the assigned storage unit based on the scheduled appointment. - Manage one or more rented storage units - Send support requests for problems related to the unit, lock, access code, payment, or stored items. 2. Facility Staff - Check the customer's reservation when the customer arrives to receive the unit. - Support check-in and hand over the storage unit, lock, access card, or access code. - Update the unit status after handover, during use, after return, or when inspection/maintenance is needed. - Check and confirm the unit condition when the customer returns the unit. - Receive and handle on-site problems such as lost keys, access code issues, damaged units, or customer support requests. - Track the daily list of customers who need to receive units, return units, or receive support. 3. Facility Manager - Manage storage units at the assigned facility, including unit type, size, location, rental price, and unit status. - Assign suitable storage units to customers based on unit type, rental period, and availability. - Monitor current customers, rental contracts, rental periods, and payment status. - Manage the process of unit handover, unit return, rental renewal, and overdue handling at the facility. - Assign facility staff to support handover, unit inspection, or problem handling. - View facility reports on available units, rented units, revenue, usage rate, and overdue cases. 4. Business Operations Manager - Manage the list of all storage facilities in the whole system. - Set general rental policies, such as deposit, renewal, cancellation, unit return, and overdue handling. - Manage rental price ranges, extra fees, overdue fees, and discount or fee-waiver policies. - Monitor revenue, storage usage rate, and operating performance of each facility. - View and export system-wide reports by facility, unit type, revenue, and rental status.
---	--	---